Overview

Joshua S. Bauchner serves as the chair of the Cannabis, Hemp and Psychedelics Practice Group and is a partner in the Litigation and Bankruptcy practice groups. He brings a depth of experience and dedication to his practice, where he is involved in complex commercial and securities litigations, class actions, and bankruptcy-related issues. His areas of specialization include:

- Enforcement of commercial contracts such as lease agreements, guaranties, purchase and sale contracts, and commission agreements.
- Litigation of partnership disputes.
- Class action prosecution and defense.
- Claims originating from insurance coverage denials.
- Employment litigation including FLSA, ADA, ADEA, Title VII, and analogous state law claims.
- Defense against commercial landlord/tenant and foreclosure actions.

His extensive experience is also evident in representative matters, ranging from construction and design defect claims to defending corporate clients against securities fraud claims presented by the SEC and DOJ to litigating adversary proceedings in bankruptcy. He also successfully handled numerous appeals in state and federal court.

In the ever-evolving area of psychoactive substances, Josh was instrumental in co-hosting the inaugural Cannabis Symposium in New Jersey, attracting nearly a thousand attendees, with subsequent symposia continuing to garner attention. As a notable member of the New Jersey State Bar Association Cannabis Law Committee, the NORML Legal Committee, and the Amicus Committee, he received the New Jersey Law Journal's Innovator of the Year Award.*

After graduating from law school, Josh had the honor of clerking for the Honorable Ursula Ungaro at the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida. He also served as the Deputy Director of the Legal Division at the New York City Department of Consumer Affairs.

A passion for education and community development, as a licensed real estate instructor in New York, he educates aspiring real estate professionals, and he has served as an adjunct professor at Brooklyn Law School. Josh also is deeply involved in his community. He was appointed by the Manhattan Borough President to Manhattan Community Board 10, where he served as the Board's treasurer and co-chaired the Committee on Land Use. Additionally, he played an active role on the Board of Trustees for Wheaton College, the New York Theater Ballet, Frederick Douglass Boulevard Alliance, and the Harlem Wellness Center.

He is admitted to practice in both New York and New Jersey as well as the United States District Court of Michigan, the United States District Courts for the Southern, Eastern and Western Districts of New York, the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey as well as the United States Court of Appeals for the Second and Third Circuits.

In addition to his professional endeavors, Joshua's thoughts and perspectives have been featured in numerous publications, shedding light on diverse areas such as cannabis laws, creditors' rights in bankruptcy, and the intricacies of negligence claims.
